SIMEON SEDWICK FAMILY BURIAL PLOT

In the southeast corner of Section 34, of the Northeast Quarter of the section, Twp. 19N, R. 2E, in Union Township, Boone County, Indiana, about one-half mile east of Rosston, and on the north side of the Midland Railroad and the west side of County Road 1000 E. Visited July 20, 1974 by Mr. and Mrs. James Yater, R. R. 2, Zionsville, Mrs. Wayne L. Reagan, R. R. 2, Lebanon, Mrs. John A. Lyons, R. R. 2, Zionsville, Ralph W. Stark, R.R.# 2, Lebanon and a half dozen youngsters including two Girl Scouts. The plot is in the southeast corner of the big 61 acre woods owned by Simeon Sedwick in pioneer days and now the property of the Hoosier Capital Girl Scouts organization

Trees and undergrowth surround the plot, but the plot itself, approximately 12' x 25' is free of vegetation. A red granite marker, about 20" square and seven feet tall centers the west side of the plot with seven dark granite head stones arranged in a row to the north and south.

The large marker is engraved as follows: (On south side) (On west side) (On north side) Infant Dau. Simeon Harvey Born - Died Sedwick Sedwick Oct. 23, 1836 Died Mar. 30, 1863 Died Oct. 9, 1855 Aged 65 y. 7 m, 22 d. Aged 12 y, 6 m, 23 d. Isabella Phebe Martin Sedwick Sedwick Sedwick Died Dec. 17, 1876 Died Nov. 1, 1895 Died Mar. 10, 1848 Aged 26 y. 7 m. 18 d Aged 7 y. 10 m, 14 d. Aged 86 y, 10m, 6d. Narion Sedwick Blessed are the Died Jan. 9, 1850 dead which die Aged 15 y. 7 m. 10 d. in the Lord.

The seven head stones are engraved: Infant, Isabella, Marion, Simeon, Phebe, Harvey, Martin. One smell marble slab lying on the ground reads: Infant son of Wm. (?) & M. J. Sedwick. One even smaller marble stone erect in the ground appears to have L. S. at the top corners. Presumably, these are the graves of Simeon and Phebe Sedwick and their children.

There is another Sedwick burial plot about 3/4 th mile north of the Simeon Sedwick plot, in about the center of the SE¹ of Section 27, Twp. 19M, R2E. It is shown on the U. S. Dept. of the Interior Geological Map, Rosston Quadrangle (1953) and is identified as Sedwick Cemetery. The Simeon Sedwick plot is shown but not identified.

In 1850 U. S. Census of Boone County, under house number 1682, lists: Sedwick, Simeon, age 53, farmer, worth $2000; b. in Va.; Phebe, age 40, b. in Penn.; Washington, 18; Columbus, 12; Hsrvey, 7; Sidney, 3; and Martha 1/12. The last five named all born in Indiana.

Under house number 1681, is listed: Cepio Sedwick, age 50, farmer, worth $1,000; b. in Ky.; Jane, age 40, b. in England; Rebecca J., 20; Elizabeth 18; Mary E. 15; Lawrence V. 9; John 5; and Hannah, 2. Last named six b in Indiana. It is surmised that Columbus Sedwick placed the monument and markers at the site shortly after the death of his Mother, Phebo, in 1895. By Ralph W. OHIO SAMUEL STRAIN WILL PROBATE COURT OF HIGHLAND COUNTY

In the name of God amen I, Samuel Strain of Highland County and State of Ohio - being in good bodily health and sound mind duly considering that it is appointed to all men once to die and being mindfull of that great change when it shall please God tocall me hence do make this my last will and testament. Visz --

First I commend my soul to God who gave it and my body to the grave to be buried at the discretion of my Executors, John R. Strain, James Johnson, and Andrew M. Strain of Highland County whome I appoint my lawful Executors to settle and dispose of my Estate according to the provisions hereafter made----

Second, having given the following names of my children -towit: Thomas M. C. Strain, Betsey Rogers, Samuel B. Strain, John H. Strain,; Polly Clark, Margarett Stuart, Andrew M. Strain, Nancy Lister, Rugh W. Strain, Rebecca Ann Watt, Easter Thornton, James Y. Strain, decd.; and william J. Strain all that portion of my Estate which I design as their dividend on legacy I therefore will that no further dividing of my property be made among them by my Executors--

To my three daughters Malinda, Sarah, and Martha I will one cow and calf each in addition to what they have already received --

I further will and devise that my son Robert W. Strain who is now deranged, be and remain in the care of the family supported from my estate so long so long as my Executors shall deem it advisable and safe from there to remain and if upon the event of his being removed he is still to be sustained from my estate subject to the discretion of my Executors-- p. 268

I further will and devise that my wife, Nancy, remain in the possesion of the mansion house and premises household and kitchen furniture beds and bedding, horses, cattle, wagon gears, farming utensils, and whatever else of my estate my Executors may judge necessary for the support of the family as farming purposes.---

I further will concerning my Library that Scotts Commentary be assigned to my wife and four youngest sons and that the remainder of my books be equally distributed between my wife and unmarried children.

It is also my will that my unmarried children remain in the family and that they receive a proportional benefit from the proceeds of my estate.

as long as they remain in the family .--

And if upon the event of my wife getting married, it is my will that she shall have no control over any part of my estate other than her dowery—and if upon the event of her marriage, or dying, it is my will that my property personal or then remaining be for the benefit of my four youngest sons and be under the care of my executors untill they become respectively of age.

It is also my will that all my real estate be eventually divided equally amongst my four sons visz. Lewis, Cymis, David & Benjamin and that they never be under the Control of a step father.
